

CONSTRUCTORA CONCRETO S.A.
STATES THAT:

Today, Consortio CCC Ituango, in which the Company has a 35% stake, filed the request with the Center for Conciliation, Arbitration and Amicable Arbitration of the Medellín Chamber of Commerce for Antioquia to initiate international arbitration to definitely resolve the existing controversy with Empresas Públicas de Medellín (EPM), in relation to the effects suffered by the Ituango Hydroelectric Project.

This is a process that is used because it is the mechanism contractually agreed upon with EPM to resolve disputes that arise between the Parties. The Consortio CCC Ituango will demonstrate before the International Court of Arbitration that it was not technically nor legally responsible for the events that gave rise to the contingency. Additionally, it will seek to be compensated for the damages due to the reputational and economic impacts that it has suffered.
