STATUTORY AUDITOR'S REPORT

February 28, 2014

To the Shareholders of CONSTRUCTORA CONCONCRETO S.A.

I have audited the general balance sheet of Constructora Conconcreto S.A. as of December 31, 2013 which comprise the corresponding statements of profits and losses, changes in equity, changes in financial position and cash flows for the year ended on the aforementioned date, as well as the summary of the main accounting policies indicated in note 1 and other explanatory notes. The financial statements of Constructora Conconcreto S.A. corresponding to the year 2012 were audited by another public accountant engaged with Crowe Horwath who, in report dated February 27, 2013, expressed an unqualified opinion thereon.

Management is responsible for the correct preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Colombia by the Colombian Financial Supervisory Body. This responsibility includes designing, implementing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error, selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies, and making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the circumstances.

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit. I conducted my audit in accordance with Colombian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that I comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit of financial statements involves, among others, performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained in my audit is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion expressed hereinafter.

In my opinion, the aforementioned financial statements audited by me, which were fairly taken from the accounting books, present fairly, in all material aspects, the financial position of Constructora Conconcreto S.A. as at December 31, 2013, as well as the statements of profits and losses, changes in equity, changes in financial position and cash flows for the year ended on the aforementioned date, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Colombia for entities controlled by the Colombian Financial Supervisory Body, which were uniformly applied according to the previous year.

Based on the results of my tests, I consider that during 2013, the accounting of the Company has been conducted according to the legal standards and the accounting technique; the operations recorded in the books and the acts of the managers comply with the by-laws and the decisions of the Assembly; the mailing, accounts supports, minutes' books and stock registry are duly recorded and kept; there are appropriate measures related to internal control, keeping and custody of the Company's properties and third parties' properties held by the same; there is correlation between the accompanying financial statements and the management report prepared by the managers and the information contained in the statements regarding self-assessment of contributions to the Integral Social Security System, in particular with respect to the members and their base income for contribution, which has been taken from the accounting records and supports; the Company is not in default regarding contributions to the Integral Social Security System

February 28, 2014

To the General Assembly of Shareholders of CONSTRUCTORA CONCONCRETO S.A.

I have audited the consolidated general balance sheet of Constructora Conconcreto S.A. and its subordinated companies as of December 31, 2013 which comprise the corresponding consolidated statements of profits and losses, changes in equity of shareholders, changes in financial position and cash flows for the year ended on the aforementioned date, as well as the summary of the main accounting policies indicated in note 1 and other explanatory notes. The consolidated financial statements of Constructora Conconcreto S.A. corresponding to the year 2012 were audited by another public accountant engaged with Crowe Horwath who, in report dated February 27, 2013, expressed an unqualified opinion thereon.

The financial statements of the subordinated companies where Constructora Conconcreto S.A. owns direct and indirect proprietary interest and as detailed in note 4 of the present consolidated financial statements as of December 31, 2013 and which reflect, before deletions, total assets equal to $307.087 Million Colombian Pesos and total net profits amounting up to $13.508 Million Colombian Pesos, were audited by other Public Accountants, whose reports have been provided to me and my opinion expressed herein with respect to amounts included of these companies, is exclusively based on the reports of the other Public Accountants.

Management is responsible for the correct preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Colombia by the Colombian Financial Supervisory Body. This responsibility includes designing, implementing and maintaining internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatements, whether due to fraud or error, selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies, and making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the circumstances.

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audits. I conducted my audit in accordance with Colombian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that I comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit of financial statements involves, among others, performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements. I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained in my audit, as well as the report of the other public accountants, are sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion expressed hereinafter.

In my opinion, the aforementioned consolidated financial statements audited by me, present fairly, in all material aspects, the financial position of Constructora Conconcreto S.A. and its subordinated companies as at December 31, 2013, as well as the statements of profits and losses, changes in equity, changes in financial position and cash flows for the year ended on the aforementioned date, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in Colombia for entities controlled by the Colombian Financial Supervisory Body, which were uniformly applied according to the previous period.

Materiality Criterion. The materiality criterion has been used in the financial statements submitted providing complete and detailed information of the significant entries thus avoiding grouping, under entries called "other," figures higher than 5% of the total assets, liabilities or of the net worth of the Company.

Accounting Policies

The accountant registers of the company follow the rules prescribed, among others, by Decrees 2649 and 2650 of 1993, and 1536 of 2007; the regulations from the Financial Superintendence of Colombia, including the information required by Circulating Letters numbers 2 and 11 of 1998. Some of these regulations are summarized below:

- a. Accounting Period. The cutoff date is annual, on December 31 of each year.
- b. Currency. Pursuant to the legal provisions, the currency used by the Company for the preparation of the financial statements is the Colombian peso (COP).
- c. Classification of Assets and Liabilities. Their classification is based on their use and their degree of realization, as per time, in current and noncurrent.

Current assets is understood as those sums of money that may be realizable or that will be available in a term not exceeding one (1) year; current liabilities are those amounts that will also be demandable or realizable within a term of no more than one (1) year.

Pursuant to the provisions of article 115 of Decree 2649 of 1993, concerning those entries of the assets or of the liabilities related to construction projects, said classification is made by taking into consideration the operating period which, in some projects, may take more than one (1) year.

Concerning the classification of intangibles corresponding to contributions made to trust assets, an evaluation was made of the current portion in the balance sheets of the Trust Companies and, pursuant to that portion, we made the reclassification of our contributions to the current assets.

- d. Acknowledgment of Incom. The income derived from the rendering of the construction service is acknowledged and invoiced as the project is executed; the income derived from professional fees, rentals and other services is acknowledged when they take place.
- e. Investments. They are recorded at their cost, except for inflation adjusted permanent investments (adjustment made up to December 31, 2006), which does not exceed the market value. The recording of the valuation of the permanent investments as non-controlled is made pursuant to the provisions of External Circulating Letter No. 11 of 1998 of the Superintendency of Securities (currently, the Financial Superintendence of Colombia), as follows:

If the value of the realization of the investment is higher than its book value, said difference is an increase in the value of the investment. Its value must be recorded in the account for appreciations (increases in value) and its balancing entry is the appreciation surplus account in the net worth.

If the value of the realization of the investment is lower than its book value, such difference becomes a decrease in the value of the investment. Its value must be recorded in the account for appreciations and its balancing entry is the appreciation surplus account in the net worth with a lower value for one and for the other. When the decrease in value exceeds the balance recorded in the corresponding book, then a provision for investments is created.

The investments in controlled companies are recorded through the equity method pursuant to the percentage acquired; when the purchase price exceeds the equity value of the subordinated company, the higher value paid is recorded as a mercantile credit pursuant to Joint Circulating Letter 011 of August 2005, as follows:

"The parent entities, or controlling companies, must acknowledge the Acquired Mercantile Credit in each subordinated company as follows:

- a) When making the investment, as long as the control of the economic entity is acquired with that investment.
- b) When increasing its participation in the capital of the economic entity, if the investor already had its control."

When the investment is made at a price that is lower than the intrinsic value of the net worth of the controlled company, said price remains as the cost of the investment, and the difference with respect to the intrinsic value is recorded as an appreciation (Asset) by taking as a balancing entry a surplus derived from appreciations (Net Worth); this, pursuant to the same Joint Circulating Letter 011:

"...Is not subject to accounting acknowledgment, as a negative mercantile credit, when the investor has or acquires the control by paying a price that is lower than the intrinsic value; in this case, the value of the negotiation is recorded as a cost, and the adjustment of the investment to the intrinsic value, in subsequent periods, will reflect this effect, which must be recorded in valuation set-off accounts..."

In addition, and pursuant to External Circulating Letter No. 006 of the Superintendency of Companies, and Joint Circulating Letter 011 of the Superintendency of Securities (currently, the Financial Superintendence), the variations derived from equity entries different from their results, pursuant to the percentage interest the parent company owns, whether positive or negative, from which the value of the inflation endorsements applied by the controlling company to the investment during the period must be subtracted, must be recorded as an increase or a decrease of the last adjusted inflation cost, credited or charged to the Surplus Participation Method, as the case may be.

In the event of not having sufficient balance within the Surplus Participation Method recorded by the parent or controlling company, the higher value of the equity decreases must be recorded as a loss, directly affecting the results of the parent or controlling company.

The controlled companies that have investments in companies of the same controlled group also apply this method.

- f. Provision for debtors. It represents the necessary estimated amount in order to provide adequate protection vis-à-vis losses in the portfolio due to services, loans to employees and sundry debtors.
- g. Inventories. Inventories represent corporal goods for sale during the ordinary course of businesses and their use in construction projects. They are recorded at the inflation adjusted cost (adjustment made up to December 31, 2006) which does not exceed the replacement or sale value in the market. The method used in order to determine their cost is:

Materials and spare parts, stock-room Average mobile cost

Real estate property for sale

Specific identification

This account also includes ongoing contracts corresponding to cumulative costs of projects that, to date, are still underway and over which the construction work has not been invoiced yet.

Provision for obsolescence. Based on obsolescence technical analyses and slow movement, a provision is recorded in order to protect the inventories.

h. Property, Plant and Equipment, Net. They are recorded at their inflation adjusted cost (adjustment made up to December 31, 2006) and are depreciated based on the straight line method. The Company does not calculate any residual value for its assets so they are depreciated in full. Repair and maintenance expenses are charged to the results as they are incurred in. Computing equipment acquired for projects is depreciated based on the reducing balance method by calculating a 1% residual value.

The exchange difference derived from obligations in foreign currencies entered into for the acquisition of fixed assets is recorded as a higher value of the assets up to the moment in which they can be used.

Besides including in this account the own assets, assets acquired under Consortia are recorded pursuant to the percentage that corresponds to the participation in them, and over which the company assumed the income tax benefit related to the investment in fixed assets.

i. Intangible Assets. Pursuant to Regulatory Decree 2650 of 1993, the rights derived from assets handed over under a mercantile trust are included. They give the settlor, or beneficiary, the possibility to exercise them pursuant to the charter or to the law.

They are classified as follows:

Real Estate Trust: it records the trust agreements through which the economic entity transfers a real estate property to the trust company for it to manage and develop a real estate project pursuant to the instructions set forth in the agreement, when the beneficiary is the same settlor.

Guarantee Trust: it records the trust agreements through which the economic entity transfers one or several assets to a trust company to guarantee with them and/or with their return the fulfillment of certain obligations by appointing the creditors of said obligations as the beneficiary.

Administration Trust: it records the fiduciary transactions in which the economic entity undertakes the handing over of the goods given in trust with the transfer of the ownership so the trust company manages them and allocates them, along with the returns, as the case may be, to the fulfillment of the purpose set forth in the agreement.

The results of the trust transactions carried out through the figure of free-standing trust funds are recorded in the income, costs and expenses pursuant to the percentage of participation in each one of them.

This item also includes the assets received under leasing contracts pursuant to the accounting regulations and are amortized based on the straight line method.

We must highlight that with the Merger through Absorption between the companies Constructora Conconcreto S.A. and Inversiones Conconcreto S.A., which was notified through Public Deed number 1528 of September 3, 2012, Constructora Conconcreto S.A. assumes the status of settlor which was under the responsibility of Inversiones Conconcreto S.A.

Mercantile Credit: the additional value paid for the purchase of companies in which control is acquired is recorded as a mercantile credit.

The value of the mercantile credit, in the case of the acquisition of control of the companies, is the excess of the acquisition cost vis-à-vis the value of the accounting net worth when the acquisition took place.

The mercantile credit acquired is recorded as an intangible asset. Its amortization is recorded through a twenty-year period as dividends are generated by the controlled society.

j. Deferrals.

Expenses paid in Advance. They correspond, mainly, to insurance premiums amortized pursuant to the validity of the policies.

Deferred Charges. CThey correspond to computing software amortized at a 20% annual rate.

In addition, we find the deferred monetary correction, a product of the inflation adjustments of ongoing construction works (inventories) applied only until year 2006. The amortization shall be made pursuant to the provisions of article 3 of Decree 1536 of 2007 which amends article 73 of Decree 2649 of 1993, against the income accounts in the same proportion assigned to the costs of the assets that gave rise to them, by using the same depreciation or amortization system used for said assets. In the event that the asset that gave rise to them is disposed of, transferred or withdrawn, likewise, the cumulative balances of these accounts must be cancelled.

Deferred Taxes. The effect of the temporary differences implying the payment of a higher or lower value of the income tax in the current year is recorded as a deferred receivable or payable tax.

It is estimated at the current rates, as long as there is a reasonable expectation that such differences will revert.

The deferred tax is amortized in the periods in which the temporary differences that gave rise to it revert

k. Appreciations and/or Decrease in Values.

Concerning property, plant and equipment whose adjusted book value exceeds twenty (20) monthly minimum salaries, the appreciation is determined through the difference between the appraisal and the net book value and the technically determined value.

As per the practice of valuations, they have been carried out pursuant to the provisions of article 2 of Decree 1536 of 2007 which amends subsection nine of article 64 of Decree 2649 of 1993, and the provisions of article 60 of Law 550 of 1999, regulated by Decree 422 of 2000, in relation to the requirements to be met by appraisals and appraisers concerning professional suitability, trustworthiness, experience and independence.

In order to determine the appreciation and/or decrease in value of permanent investments listed on the stock exchange, the difference between the average simple price recorded on the Stock Exchange during the last ninety (90) working days (External Circulating Letter 11 of September 29, 1998) of the cutoff month of the Balance Sheet will be used but, failing that, the intrinsic value and the inflation adjusted cost.

As per the investments listed on the stock exchange that have little marketability, its appraisal is carried out according to the intrinsic value of the share, pursuant External Circulating Letter 11 of September 29, 1998, of the Financial Superintendence.

In the case of the investments not listed on the stock exchange, its appraisal is determined according to the intrinsic value of the share, pursuant to the certificate issued by the company in which the investment is made.

The appreciation and/or decrease in value of Intangible Assets (fiduciary rights) are determined through the difference between the equity value reflected on the financial statements of the trust company and the accounting cost acknowledged as intangible.

- Labor liabilities. The liabilities correspond to obligations the Company has with its workers as per legal and voluntary benefits, calculated pursuant to the legislation in force.
- m. Pensions. It records the current value of the liabilities of the Company based on actuarial studies.
- n. Provision for Income Taxes. The Company records the provision for income taxes based on the taxable profit calculated at the fees in force set forth in the tax legislation. When the taxable income is lower than the imputable income, the provision for income taxes is calculated based on the latter.

Provision for Income Taxes for Equity. CREE. The Company records the provision for taxes over the income for equity, CREE, based on the income that may increase the net worth, at a 9% fee up to year 2015.

o. Transactions in foreign currencies. LTransactions and balances in foreign currencies are converted into Colombian pesos at the representative exchange rates of the market ('TRM') certified by the Central Bank ('Banco de la República'). The TRM used for the December 2013 closing is $1,926.83 for balances in dollars.

The not capitalized exchange difference is taken to the item corresponding to expenses or income due to an exchange difference, as the case may be.

p. Monetary Correction. Up until December 31, 2006, the non-monetary assets and liabilities and the net worth of the partners, except for the accounts of the profit and loss statement and the surplus derived from the appreciation of assets, were updated in a prospective manner by using general indices of consumer prices (Adjustment Percentage of Taxable Year – 'PAAG'); the corresponding adjustments were taken to the profit and loss statement, and to the monetary correction account.

As of January 1, 2007, the Ministry of Commerce, Industry and Tourism through Decree No. 1536 of May 7 of the same year, suspended the system of integral inflation adjustments for accounting purposes. The cumulative inflation adjustments in the accounts, up to December 31, 2006, are not reversed and are part of the balance of their corresponding accounts for all accounting purposes, up until their cancellation, depreciation or amortization.

- q. Net Profit per Shar. It is determined based on the weighted average of the outstanding shares during the fiscal year.
- r. Contra Accounts. Commitments to be formalized are recorded under the contra accounts, as well as contingent rights and liabilities, such as unused positive balances and the existing differences between the entries and entries of the same nature used for tax return purposes.
- s. Policy for Accounting Records of Consortia. The company reflects on its income, costs and expenses related to its participation which is derived from contractual agreements; the assets and the liabilities are recorded in the contra accounts.
- t. Cash Equivalent. For the purposes of the presentation of the cash flow statement, the Company classifies investments with a maturity of less than one year and/or that are available immediately in the item for cash equivalents.
- u. Accounting Estimates. The preparation of the financial statements pursuant to the accounting principles generally accepted in Colombia requires that the management makes some calculations and undertake assumptions that affect the amounts reported for the assets, liabilities, as well as those of the reported income and expenses during the period.
- v. Consolidated Financial Statements. The Company consolidates the companies where there is control at the closing of each fiscal year by taking into consideration the indirect or direct participation, also including the entities determined within the corporate group.

The companies that are subject to consolidation use the same accounting policies of the controlling company and reciprocate transactions are eliminated from the Balance Sheet and from the Income and Loss Statement: the net worth of the subordinate companies is eliminated with the investment of the parent company where the minority proprietary interest is generated. As per the case of the controlled companies in which there is no investment to eliminate, the concept of controlled net worth or controlled profit is created.

The controlled companies, as of December 2013, are the following: Conconcreto Internacional S.A., Inmobiliaria Conconcreto S.A.S., Inversiones Worldwide Storage S.A., Industrial Conconcreto S.A.S., U-Storage S.A.S., Sistemas Constructivos Avanzados S.A.S., CAS Mobiliaria S.A., and Cantera La Borrascosa S.A.S.

- w. Statement of Changes in the Net Worth. It reflects all the variations of the net worth, such as those caused by increases in the capital, profit distribution, activities of the reserves, and all those changes derived from provisions included in the Minutes of the Shareholders' Assembly, or to decisions from fiscal or control entities that must comply with the legal formalities stipulated, and that must be recorded in the corresponding accounts during the period in which they occur.
- x. Statement of Changes in the Financial Situation and Changes in the Working Capital. EThe statement of Changes in the Financial Situation shows the variation, through non-current accounts, by analyzing the generation of working capital as a result of the operations and other financial resources, as well as their corresponding use. The same effect is shown in the analysis of the changes in the working capital but through the current accounts that show the closest cash available.
- v. Cash Flow Statement. It presents the details of the cash received and paid throughout the period; its management and variation during the year is detailed through three activities:

The reserves from exempt profits, or from nontaxable income or from capital gains, or from the system of integral inflation adjustments, that the company shows in its balance sheet as of December 31 of the previous year, may be capitalized and its distribution in paid-up shares shall not be deemed taxable income or capital gains for the corresponding partners or shareholders.

With the creation of that reserve, no credit deferred tax will be caused at Constructora Conconcreto S.A. through the equity method.

NOTE 26. CONTINGENCIES AND COMMITMENTS

Contingencies:

The company undertakes the defense of different administrative and judicial proceedings, contentious administrative, civil, commercial and labor in nature in which an unfavorable decision would represent a payment obligation. The management of the company, along with its external and in-house consultants, considers that the probable result of these contingencies will not materially affect the financial situation or the results of the company.

In addition, regarding those contingencies considered risky due to unfavorable judgments, the company has insurance policies which cover liabilities derived from damages or personal injuries cause by or related to the normal course of the works, operations and properties owned by Constructora Conconcreto S.A., or concerning those it is responsible for at the civil level, including, but not limited to contractors, subcontractors, employees, and executives.

Commitments:

As a result of the Corporate Restructuring Agreement, set forth in Law 550 of 1990, the company Constructora Conconcreto S.A. entered into a restructuring agreement with its creditors. Project for the Implementation of International Financial Reporting Standards – Report as of December 31, 2013:

The exercise of the voluntary application of the International Financial Reporting Standards – IFRS, announced by the Colombian government through Decree 4946 of December 30, 2011, was successfully completed on May 31, 2013, by delivering the last financial report under said regulation; its cut-off date is December 31, 2012.

As a result of the voluntary exercise, the most relevant impacts were identified as per the application of the IFRS. In addition, concerns arose regarding the interpretation of the law, which led to conducting a research project among different companies of Group 1, some consultants, and the Technical Council for Public Accounting, striving for clarity and support for decision-making processes.

The general schedule of the implementation project, requested by the Financial Superintendence, through Circulating Letter of January 10, 2013, was delivered on February 28, 2013.

A requirement from the Financial Superintendence requesting information was received on September 24, 2013. The purpose was to conduct a follow-up to the schedule of activities delivered at the beginning of the year. The reply sent clarified that the following points were already 100% completed:

- 1. Creation of the work team.
- 2. Evaluation of the impacts (human, operating and technological resources).
- 3. Analysis of the IFRS that would be applied to the entity.
- 4. Training and disclosure of the project.
- 5. Detailed schedule as per the development of the project.
- 6. Approval of the project.
- 7. Determination of the most relevant impacts on the financial statements.

The following points were reported with a fulfilment lower than 100% by explaining the difficulties found in order to complete the activities:

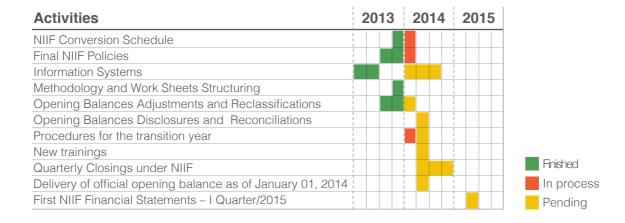

- 1. Actions in order to mitigate impacts (70%).
- 2. Approval of action plan to mitigate impacts (20%).
- 3. Adaptation of information systems (80%).
- 4. Review of final accounting policies (70%).

Among the main concerns that arose from differences in the interpretation were the construction agreements under Delegate Management and Freestanding Trust Funds, topics that are being resolved with the regulatory entities.

The Financial Superintendence requested us, on November 21, 2013, through Circulating Letter 112 of 2013, to answer a survey in order to report the progress of the process. Said survey was answered and submitted on December 20, 2013. A similar request had been received on September 1, 2013, from the Superintendency of Companies, which was answered and submitted as per our subsidiary companies, surveilled by this Superintendency and that belong to Group 1 of IFRS implementation.

On December 27, 2013, the Ministry of Commerce, Industry and Tourism issued decree 3023, making some amendments to decree 2784 of 2012, which had already regulated the mandatory application of the IFRS for companies of Group 1, by announcing that they would be effective from January 1, 2014.

Our company has been working in the official conversion of the Financial Statements to the IFRS as of December 31, 2013, by using the in-house developed methodology which has been validated by the external consultants. The current schedule of the project is detailed below:

Pursuant to External Circulating Letter 038, issued by the Financial Superintendence in December 2013, the Opening Statement of the Financial Situation must be submitted, at the latest, on June 30, 2014, with its corresponding explanatory notes, policies, reconciliations, and other necessary exhibits pursuant to the IFRS 1, first-time adoption. The opening balance sheet must be audited by the statutory auditors and are under the responsibility and follow up of the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee and the Legal Representatives.

2014 will be focused on fulfilling the activities of the schedule as detailed in the foregoing table and, as done in 2013, the subsidiary entities of the economic group will be included.

Modification of the Corporate Group:

Summary of the main accounting policies is as follows:

- a. Accounting Period. The cutoff date is annual, on December 31 of each year.
- b. Currency. Pursuant to the legal provisions, the currency used by the Company for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements is the Colombian peso (COP).
- c. Classification of Assets and Liabilities. Their classification is based on their use and their degree of realization, as per time, in current and noncurrent.

Current assets is understood as those sums of money that may be realizable or that will be available in a term not exceeding one (1) year; current liabilities are those amounts that will also be demandable or realizable within a term of no more than one (1) year.

Pursuant to the provisions of article 115 of Decree 2649 of 1993, concerning those entries of the assets or of the liabilities related to construction projects, said classification is made by taking into consideration the operating period which, in some projects, may take more than one (1) year.

Concerning the classification of intangibles corresponding to contributions made to trust assets, an evaluation was made of the current portion in the balance sheets of the Trust Companies and, pursuant to that portion, we made the reclassification of our contributions to the current assets.

d. Acknowledgment of Income. The income derived from the rendering of the construction service is acknowledged and invoiced as the project is executed; the income derived from professional fees, rentals and other services is acknowledged when they take place.

e. Investments. They are recorded at their cost, except for inflation adjusted permanent investments (adjustment made up to December 31, 2006), which does not exceed the market value. The recording of the valuation of the permanent investments in non-controlling entities is made pursuant to the provisions of External Circulating Letter No. 11 of 1998 of the Superintendency of Securities (currently, the Financial Superintendence of Colombia), as follows:

If the value of the realization of the investment is higher than its book value, said difference is an increase in the value of the investment. Its value must be recorded in the account for appreciations and its balancing entry is the investor's equity, affecting the appreciation surplus account.

If the value of the realization of the investment is lower than its book value, such difference becomes a decrease in the value of the investment. Its value must be recorded in the account for appreciations and its balancing entry is the equity of the shareholder, in the appreciation surplus account, as a lower value for one and for the other. When the decrease in value exceeds the balance recorded in the corresponding book, then a provision for investments is created.

The investments in controlled companies (including appreciations of the same) are deleted against the aggregate equity of the subordinated companies.

Whenever the purchase price should exceed the equity value of the subordinated company, the higher value paid is recorded as a mercantile credit pursuant to Joint Circulating Letter 011 of August 18, 2005, as follows:

"The parent entities, or controlling companies, must acknowledge the Acquired Mercantile Credit in each subordinated company as follows:

- a) When making the investment, as long as the control of the economic entity is acquired with that investment.
- b) When increasing its participation in the capital of the economic entity, if the investor already had its control."
- f. Provision for debtors. It represents the necessary estimated amount in order to provide adequate protection vis-à-vis losses in the portfolio due to services, loans to employees and sundry debtors.
- g. Inventories Inventories represent corporal goods for sale during the ordinary course of businesses and their use in construction projects. They are recorded at the inflation adjusted cost (adjustment made up to December 31, 2006) which does not exceed the replacement or sale value in the market. The method used in order to determine their cost is:
 - Materials and spare parts, stock-room: Average mobile cost
 - Real estate property for sale: Specific identification

This account also includes ongoing contracts corresponding to cumulative costs of projects that, to date, are still underway and over which the construction work has not been invoiced yet.

Provision for obsolescence. Based on obsolescence technical analyses and slow movement, a provision is recorded in order to protect the inventories.

h. Property, Plant and Equipment, Net. They are recorded at their inflation adjusted cost (adjustment made up to December 31, 2006) and are depreciated based on the straight line method, considering the estimated useful life time generally accepted in Colombia for accounting purposes. The company does not calculate any residual value for its assets so they are depreciated in full. Repair and maintenance expenses are charged to the results as they are incurred in. Computing equipment acquired for projects is depreciated based on the reducing balance method by calculating a 1% residual value.

The exchange difference derived from obligations in foreign currencies entered into for the acquisition of fixed assets is recorded as a higher value of the assets up to the moment in which they can be used.

Besides including in this account the own assets, assets acquired under Consortia are recorded pursuant to the percentage that corresponds to the participation in them, and over which the company assumed the income tax benefit related to the investment in fixed assets.

i. Intangible Assets. Pursuant to Regulatory Decree 2650 of 1993, the rights derived from assets handed over under a mercantile trust are included. They give the settlor, or beneficiary, the possibility to exercise them pursuant to the charter or to the law.

They are classified as follows:

Real Estate Trust. it records the trust agreements through which the economic entity transfers a real estate property to the trust company for it to manage and develop a real estate project pursuant to the instructions set forth in the agreement, when the beneficiary is the same settlor.

Administration Trust. it records the fiduciary transactions in which the economic entity undertakes the handing over of the goods given in trust with the transfer of the ownership so the trust company manages them and allocates them, along with the returns, as the case may be, to the fulfillment of the purpose set forth in the agreement.

The results of transactions carried out through the figure of self-standing trust funds are recorded in the income, costs and expenses pursuant to the percentage of participation in each one of them.

This item also includes the assets received under leasing contracts pursuant to the accounting regulations and are amortized based on the straight line method.

We must highlight that with the Merger through Absorption between the companies Constructora Conconcreto S.A. and Inversiones Conconcreto S.A., which was notified through Public Deed number 1528 of September 3, 2012, Constructora Conconcreto S.A. assumes the status of settlor which was under the responsibility of Inversiones Conconcreto S.A.

Mercantile Credit. Sthe additional value paid for the purchase of companies in which control is acquired is recorded as a mercantile credit.

The value of the mercantile credit, in the case of the acquisition of control of the companies, is the excess of the acquisition cost vis-à-vis the value of the accounting net worth when the acquisition took place.

The mercantile credit acquired is recorded as an intangible asset. Its amortization is recorded through a twenty-year period as dividends are generated by the controlled society.

i. Deferrals

Expenses paid in Advance. They correspond, mainly, to insurance premiums amortized pursuant to the validity of the policies.

Deferred Charges. They correspond to computing software amortized at a 20% annual rate.

In addition, we find the deferred monetary correction, a product of the inflation adjustments of ongoing construction works (inventories) applied only until year 2006. The amortization shall be made pursuant to the provisions of article 3 of Decree 1536 of 2007 which amends article 73 of Decree 2649 of 1993, against the income accounts in the same proportion assigned to the costs of the assets that gave rise to them, by using the same depreciation or amortization system used for said assets. In the event that the asset that gave rise to them is disposed of, transferred or withdrawn, likewise, the cumulative balances of these accounts must be cancelled.

Deferred Taxes. The effect of the temporary differences implying the payment of a higher or lower value of the income tax in the current year is recorded as a deferred receivable or payable tax. It is estimated at the current rates, as long as there is a reasonable expectation that such differences will revert.

The deferred tax is amortized in the periods in which the temporary differences that gave rise to it revert.

k. Appreciations and/or Decrease in Values.

They correspond to the appreciations and/or decrease in values concerning: real estate property, machinery and equipment, and transportation equipment, whose adjusted value should exceed twenty (20) monthly minimum salaries, determined between the net book value and the technically determined value.

In order to determine the appreciation and/or decrease in value of permanent investments listed on the stock exchange, the difference between the average simple price recorded on the Stock Exchange during the last ninety (90) working days (External Circulating Letter 11 of September 29, 1998) of the cutoff month of the Balance Sheet will be used but, failing that, the intrinsic value and the inflation adjusted cost.

As per the investments listed on the stock exchange that have little marketability, its appraisal is carried out according to the intrinsic value of the share, pursuant External Circulating Letter 11 of September 29, 1998, of the Financial Superintendence.

In the case of the investments not listed on the stock exchange, its appraisal is determined according to the intrinsic value of the share, pursuant to the certificate issued by the company in which the investment is made.

The appreciation and/or decrease in value of Intangible Assets (fiduciary rights) are determined through the difference between the equity value reflected on the financial statements of the trust company and the accounting cost acknowledged as intangible.

- I. Labor liabilities. The liabilities correspond to obligations the Company has with its workers as per legal and voluntary benefits, calculated pursuant to the legislation in force.
- m.Retirement Pensions. The current value of the liabilities on account of the company, was determined on December 31, 2013 based on actuarial studies.
- n. Provision for Income Taxes. The company makes provision for income taxes based on the estimated taxable profit according to the rate set forth in the tax legislation. When the taxable profit is lower than the imputable income, the provision for income taxes is calculated based on the latter.

Provision for Income Taxes for Equity - CREE.

The Company records the provision for taxes over the income for equity, CREE, based on the income that may increase the net worth, at a 9% fee up to year 2015.

o. Transactions in foreign currencies. Transactions and balances in foreign currencies are converted into Colombian pesos at the representative exchange rates of the market ('TRM') certified by the Central Bank ('Banco de la República'). The TRM used for the December 2013 closing is $1,926.83 for balances in dollars.

The not capitalized exchange difference is taken to the item corresponding to expenses or income due to an exchange difference, as the case may be.

p. Monetary Correction. Up until December 31, 2006, the non-monetary assets and liabilities and the net worth of the partners, except for the accounts of the profit and loss statement and the surplus derived from the appreciation of assets, were updated in a prospective manner by using general indices of consumer prices (Adjustment Percentage of Taxable Year - 'PAAG'); the corresponding adjustments were taken to the profit and loss statement, and to the monetary correction account.

As of January 1, 2007, the Ministry of Commerce, Industry and Tourism through Decree No. 1536 of May 7 of the same year, suspended the system of integral inflation adjustments for accounting purposes. The cumulative inflation adjustments in the accounts, up to December 31, 2006, are not reversed and are part of the balance of their corresponding accounts for all accounting purposes, up until their cancellation, depreciation or amortization.

- g. Contra Accounts. Commitments to be formalized are recorded under the contra accounts, as well as contingent rights and liabilities, such as unused positive balances and the existing differences between the entries and entries of the same nature used for tax return purposes.
- r. Policy for Accounting Records of Consortia. The company reflects on its income, costs and expenses related to its participation which is derived from contractual agreements; the assets and the liabilities are recorded in the contra accounts.
- s. Cash Equivalents. For the purposes of the presentation of the cash flow statement, the Company classifies investments with a maturity of less than one year and/or that are available immediately in the item for cash equivalents.
- t. Accounting Estimates. The preparation of the financial statements pursuant to the accounting principles generally accepted in Colombia requires that the management makes some calculations and undertake assumptions that affect the amounts reported for the assets, liabilities, as well as those of the reported income and expenses during the period.
- u. Consolidated Financial Statements. The Company consolidates the companies where there is control at the closing of each fiscal year by taking into consideration the indirect or direct participation, also including the entities determined within the corporate group.

The companies that are subject to consolidation use the same accounting policies of the controlling company and reciprocate transactions are eliminated from the Balance Sheet and from the Income and Loss Statement; the net worth of the subordinate companies is eliminated with the investment of the parent company where the minority proprietary interest is generated. As per the case of the controlled companies in which there is no investment to eliminate, the concept of controlled net worth or controlled profit is created.

As of 2012, the company includes, within the process known as deletion of parent investment vs. controlled entities' equity, the deletion of the appraisals recorded in the accounting of the parent company, result derived from default in the acquisition of its controlled investments. The aforementioned process is applied on a prospective basis.

- v. Statement of Changes in the Consolidated Net Worth. It reflects all the variations of the net worth, such as those caused by increases in the capital, profit distribution, activities of the reserves, and all those changes derived from provisions included in the Minutes of the Shareholders' Assembly, or to decisions from fiscal or control entities that must comply with the legal formalities stipulated, and that must be recorded in the corresponding accounts during the period in which they occur.
- w. Statement of Changes in the Financial Situation and Changes in the Consolidated Working Capital. The statement of Changes in the Financial Situation shows the variation, through non-current accounts, by analyzing the generation of working capital as a result of the operations and other financial resources, as well as their corresponding use. The same effect is shown in the analysis of the changes in the working capital but through the current accounts that show the closest cash available.

x. Statement of Consolidated Cash Flow. It presents the details of the cash received and paid throughout the period; its management and variation during the year is detailed through three flows:

Operating activities. The starting point is the profit of the operation, by subtracting the entries that, although they affect it, do not generate cash increases or decreases. Other operating entries are added to the operating profit, which also affected the profit and generated or used cash.

Investment activities. It shows how the cash was generated or used in activities different from the operating ones, through acquisitions or through the sale of assets in general.

Financing activities. It shows the use or generation of cash through loans from third parties or partners.

Cash or cash equivalents are the available amount plus the negotiable investments.

Reserves

Legal Reserve - Colombian laws require that the Company reserves every year 10% of its net profit after taxes until completing, at least, 50% of the subscribed capital. The Law forbids the distribution of this reserve during the life of the Company but it may be used in order to absorb losses. 10% of the reserves from years 2012 and 2011 were allocated for the creation of the legal reserve.

Other Reserves - The following reserves were also held as of December 31, 2013: Welfare and civility, $1,383,000,000; Working capital, $138,991,341,937; at the disposal of the highest corporate body, $1,499,697,715; and, other reserves, $500,000,000.

Reincrease in Value of the Net Worth - This corresponds to the inflation adjustment of the net worth. This value may be distributed as a profit to the shareholders until the company is liquidated or that value is capitalized, pursuant to article 36-3 of the Tax Statute, and article 90 of Decree 2649 of 1993, amended by article 6 of Decree 1536 of 2007.

In the parent office, the value, as of December 2012, was received from the merger through absorption between Constructora Conconcreto S.A. and Inversiones Conconcreto S.A. There is a decrease in years 2013 and 2012 due to the implementation of the wealth tax against that account, supported by article 1 of Law 1370 of 2009, which complements article 292-1 of the Tax Statute.

The management of the company, along with its external and in-house consultants, considers that the probable result of these contingencies will not materially affect the financial situation or the results of the company.

In addition, regarding those contingencies considered risky due to unfavorable judgments, the company has insurance policies which cover liabilities derived from damages or personal injuries cause by or related to the normal course of the works, operations and properties owned by Constructora Conconcreto S.A., or concerning those it is responsible for at the civil level, including, but not limited to contractors, subcontractors, employees, and executives.

Commitments:

PROJECT FOR THE IMPLEMENTATION OF INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL REPORTING STANDARDS – REPORT AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2013:

The exercise of the voluntary application of the International Financial Reporting Standards – IFRS, announced by the Colombian government through Decree 4946 of December 30, 2011, was successfully completed on May 31, 2013, by delivering the last financial report under said regulation; its cut-off date is December 31, 2012.

As a result of the voluntary exercise, the most relevant impacts were identified as per the application of the IFRS. In addition, concerns arose regarding the interpretation of the law, which led to conducting a research project among different companies of Group 1, some consultants, and the Technical Council for Public Accounting, striving for clarity and support for decision-making processes.

The general schedule of the implementation project, requested by the Financial Superintendence, through Circulating Letter of January 10, 2013, was delivered on February 28, 2013.

A requirement from the Financial Superintendence requesting information was received on September 24, 2013. The purpose was to conduct a follow-up to the schedule of activities delivered at the beginning of the year. The reply sent clarified that the following points were already 100% completed:

- 1. Creation of the work team.
- 2. Evaluation of the impacts (human, operating and technological resources).
- 3. Analysis of the IFRS that would be applied to the entity.
- 4. Training and disclosure of the project.
- 5. Detailed schedule as per the development of the project.
- 6. Approval of the project.
- 7. Determination of the most relevant impacts on the financial statements.

The following points were reported with a fulfilment lower than 100% by explaining the difficulties found in order to complete the activities:

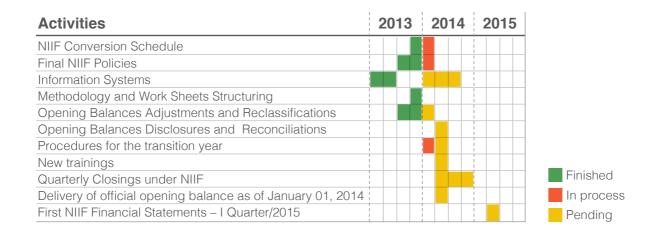

- 1. Actions in order to mitigate impacts (70%).
